

An open book is the central focus, tilted slightly to the right. The left page is blank, while the right page features the text 'We have fellowship' in a large, bold, serif font. Below this, in a smaller font, is the reference '1 John 1:7'. The book is rendered with simple black outlines and a light gray shadow on its right side to give it a three-dimensional appearance. The background is filled with a repeating pattern of black-outlined musical notes, including eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic and artistic backdrop. The entire scene is enclosed within a thick black rectangular border.
